

Tyddyn Isaf

Camping & Caravan Park - Est. 1946

Our Top 5 Villages

Getting out and about and exploring is part of the fun of being on holiday. Anglesey is home to many quaint villages – many of which have a handful of shops where you can pick up some beautiful handcrafted keepsakes to remind you of your time on our beautiful island.

1. Moelfre

Moelfre is a quaint fishing village, well worth a brisk stroll to along the coastal footpath. In the summer months you can often catch a glimpse of passing porpoise and seals, as well as observing the local fishermen at work. Moelfre has a small, sheltered shingle beach as well being home to the Moelfre Seawatch Centre and Moelfre Lifeboat Station.

Moelfre Lifeboat Day is a large event held every year in August and features a lifeboat display, a display from the RAF Valley rescue helicopter, a plentiful array of food and craft stalls, as well as music and entertainment.

Tyddyn Isaf

Camping & Caravan Park - Est. 1946

2. Cemaes Bay

Cemaes Bay is a traditional fishing village located fifteen minutes drive from Tyddyn Isaf. Stroll around the harbour watching the sailing boats come and go, or enjoy a spot of crabbing from the harbour wall!

Tyddyn Isaf

Camping & Caravan Park - Est. 1946

3. Beaumaris

Beaumaris is a pretty town located in the north-east of Anglesey. There is a vast array of café's, pubs and shops, not forgetting the famous castle and gaol. Visitors can enjoy crabbing from the beautiful pier and can also take the opportunity to catch a boat trip to explore the nearby Puffin Island.

Tyddyn Isaf

Camping & Caravan Park - Est. 1946

4. Menai Bridge

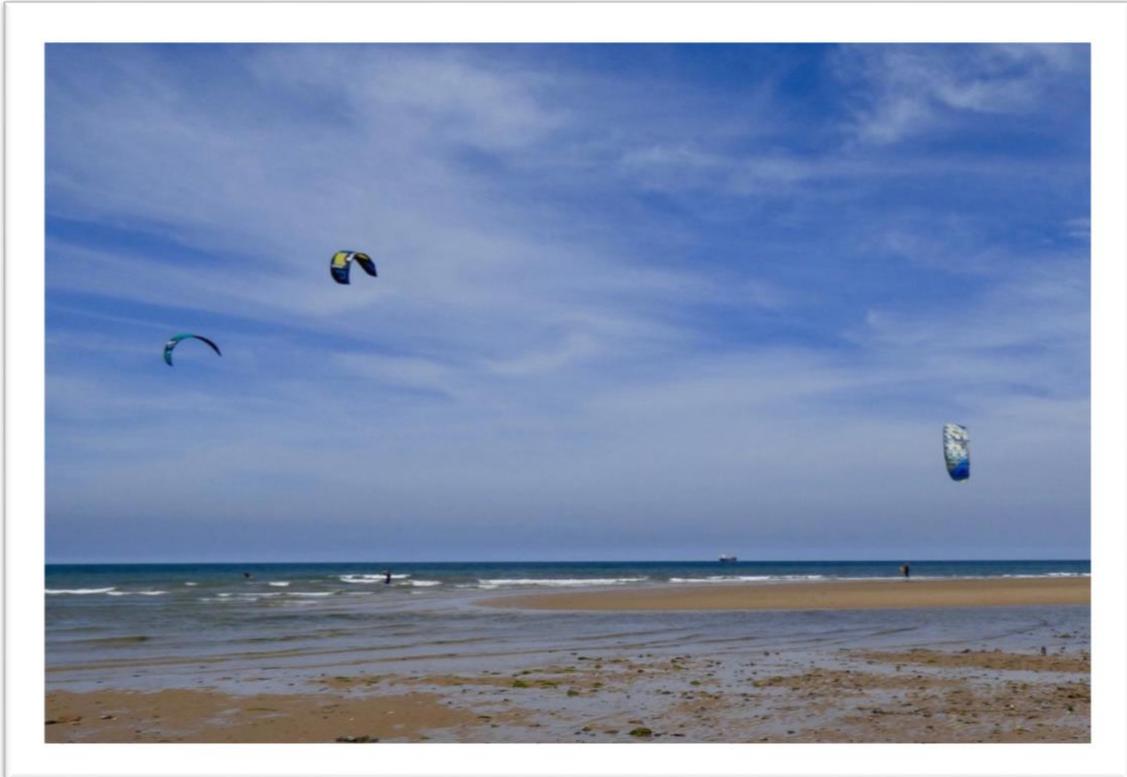

Menai Bridge is a bustling village with lots of new and upcoming bistros. Take a stroll along the shoreline and marvel at the Menai suspension bridge before continuing your journey along the banks of the Menai straights...if you look carefully you may even see the majestic stone lines that sit beneath Britannia bridge guarding the entrance to the island!

Tyddyn Isaf

Camping & Caravan Park - Est. 1946

5. Rhosneigr

Rhosneigr is a bustling village in the south east of Anglesey. It's a great location to grab a bite to eat, go shopping, and to marvel at the incredible antics of the kite surfers. Guests can also take advantage of surfing lessons and practice stand-up paddleboarding.